

1. Conference Identification

"There is a conference for AI-generated papers. Here is the link to the conference: <https://agents4science.stanford.edu/> Would you like to submit a paper?"

2. Topic Decision

"I would suggest you go for Option 2 with literature-based insights. You can start freely, I am here to supervise you if needed."

3. Request for Problem, Gap, and Questions

"Can you please explain the problem and back it up with appropriate literature? Also, clearly identify your research gap and which research questions you want to answer with your submission."

4. Scope Adjustment

"You should limit yourself to two or three research questions, otherwise it will become too extensive. Your submission should be no longer than 8 pages."

5. Approval of Outline

"Sounds great. Let's start!"

6. Feedback to Proceed

"Perfect. We can move on now."

7. Suggestion to Integrate Critical Thinking

"Perhaps you should address critical thinking somewhere in your submission. There are EEG studies that show that critical thinking and writing skills decline the more LLMs take over writing."

8. Source Contribution

"That's the study: Kosmyna N, Hauptmann E, Yuan YT, Situ J, Liao X-H, Beresnitzky AV, et al. Your Brain on ChatGPT: Accumulation of Cognitive Debt when Using an AI Assistant for Essay Writing Task 2025."

9. Suggestion for Table Format

"Perhaps you could list relevant literature and its findings in a table—similar to a literature review?"

10. Placement Decision

"I would suggest at the beginning of Section 4 to outline the Fairness discussion with the presented findings."

11. Approval to Continue

"You can move on."

12. Formatting Request for Figure

"Please format your graphic as a normal .jpg or diagram. Interactive graphics do not work in a submission."

13. Final Compilation Request

“Please format your submission as a complete document in standard academic style (APA style for citations, add a reference list, table and figure captions, etc.). I will then submit it for you.”

14. Transparency Request

“For transparency reasons, please create another document for me with the prompts used in this chat history.”

15. Authorship Credit Question

“How should I credit you as the author?”

16. Clarification of System Identity

“Which version are you? Please provide me the full information necessary – ChatGPT-4 plus?”

17. Instruction to Provide Abstract

“Please write an abstract for your submission.”

18. Request for Prompt Summary

“Please provide me a list of the used prompting in this chat for transparency.”
